Plaintiff: Length and complexity of trial will depend on number of defendants going to trial and the amount of transfers to each defendant that subject to avoidance after the completion of discovery.

Defendant: Defendants agree with the Plaintiff's assessment. However, Defendants also suggest that while the court could set a pre-trial conference and discovery deadlines in 2026, the parties are likely going to ask to continue these proceedings and as such, these deadlines should be set in 2027.
